

Need a fast and easy way to earn money for your organization?

Partner with Nevada Pops and earn 10% for each concert ticket you sell.

How it works: Nevada Pops is premiering its 2008-2009 season on August 30 and the box office price for tickets is $17.50*. Your group purchases as many tickets as you want at a discounted price of $15.75 and you sell these non-refundable tickets to your friends, family and business contacts at the box office price to recoup your cost and earn at least 10% profit per ticket for your organization.

About the concert: On August 30 at 7:30 p.m. at UNLV's Artemus Ham Hall, Nevada Pops presents A Night with the Pops, an evening of Broadway, big band and Bond, with special guests Mayor Oscar Goodman, the Desert Chorale and the Walt Boenig Big Band. The concert will feature music from West Side Story and The Music Man, film favorites from James Bond and The Incredibles and beloved classics like When the Saints Go Marchin' In and Sing, Sing, Sing. Nevada Pops is an arts organization that seeks to bring affordable and family-friendly symphonic concerts to the Las Vegas Valley.
